The LIFF experience
Screenings at LIFF work a little differently to the regular cinema experience. Please note that we aim to start all films at or soon after the times advertised, and we don’t screen adverts or trailers: there may be a short introduction at the start. For certification advice, please see individual film pages on leedsfilm.com: where a film does not have a BBFC certificate, entry is for age 18 or over only unless otherwise specified.

The debuts of new female filmmakers are among the discovery highlights in Official Selection, including Cannes Grand Prix winner Atlantics by Mati Diop, Adam by Maryam Touzani, House of Hummingbird by Bora Kim, Judy & Punch by Mirrah Foulkes, and Land of Ashes by Sofia Quiros. We also present the new film from a graduate of the Northern Film School in Leeds, Thai drama The Cave by Tom Palmer. This is just a taste of our largest Official Selection programme yet.
Adam

VUE Fri 8 Nov 20:15 & Thu 14 Nov 20:30 | £9/£7.50

Directed by Maryam Touzani | Morocco, France, Belgium | 2019 | 1hr 38min | Arabic with subtitles

The lives of two vulnerable women in Casablanca – one pregnant, homeless, and shunned, the other a grieving widow – converge and transform in this beautifully intimate directorial debut by Maryam Touzani. Abla runs a modest local bakery from her home, where she looks after her 8-year-old daughter Warda. Their routine of housework and homework is interrupted when Samia, a young woman pregnant out of wedlock, arrives looking for a job and a place to stay. Reluctant at first, Alba’s resolve gradually softens and Samia’s arrival begins to offer all of them the prospect of a new life.

Atlantics

HYDE PARK Tue 19 Nov 18:00 & Thu 21 Nov 20:30 | £9/£7.50

Directed by Mati Diop | France, Senegal, Belgium | 2019 | 1hr 44min | French & Wolof with subtitles

Winner of the Cannes Grand Prix, this striking debut feature by Mati Diop takes place in Dakar, Senegal, where workers on a vast newly-constructed tower block gaze out over the impassive ocean. One of the labourers, Souleiman, is among those who have not been paid for months, and who consequently leaves by boat seeking prospects overseas. His secret girlfriend is Ada, who cannot mourn Souleiman’s disappearance because she is engaged to another man. Ada regroups with her girlfriends and events take mournful, then supernatural turns. The air is thick with spectres in this unique highlight of Sub-Saharan cinema.

And Then We Danced

VUE Tue 12 Nov 17:45 & Thu 14 Nov 13:45 | £9/£7.50

Directed by Levan Akin | Sweden, France, Georgia | 2019 | 1hr 45min | Georgian with subtitles

And Then We Danced is a vibrant and intense love story set in the dynamic but ultra-conservative world of traditional Georgian dance. Young male dancer Merab has been training since a young age at the National Georgian Ensemble with his dance partner Mary. His world is suddenly turned upside down when the charismatic and carefree Irakli arrives and becomes both his strongest rival and his forbidden desire. Merab finds himself having to break free and risk it all. Filmmaker Levan Akin tracks the intensity of desire brilliantly through the leaps and whirls of the dance steps.
28-year-old Kantemir Balagov has marked himself out as a talent to watch, winning Best Director at Cannes (Un Certain Regard), for this achingly beautiful drama set in post-war Leningrad. Two young women, Iya and Masha, search for meaning and hope in the struggle to rebuild their lives amongst the ruins. Remarkable central performances, painterly cinematography and striking production design compliment this brutal yet tender story of female friendship and post-war trauma. “Ferocious and extraordinary... You quite often have to remind yourself to breathe.” (Variety)

Beanpole
HYDE PARK Wed 13 Nov 20:15 | VICTORIA Sat 16 Nov 14:45 | £9/£7.50
Directed by Kantemir Balagov | Russia | 2019 | 2hr 10min | Russian with subtitles

The Candidate (LUX Prize Finalist)
VUE Fri 15 Nov 12:30 | £9/£7.50
Directed by Rodrigo Sorogoyen | Spain, France | 2018 | 2hr 12min | Spanish with subtitles

Rodrigo Sorogoyen’s incisive Spanish political thriller ratchets the tension up to breaking point as the increasingly desperate acts of one corrupt politician threaten to bring down the whole system. The film focuses tightly on an intense and committed central performance by Antonio de la Torre as Manuel, a slick regional vice-secretary whose leap into national politics is made easy by a network of nefarious deals and cronynism. Everything runs smoothly until he suddenly becomes trapped in a struggle for survival after a leak involves him in a corruption scandal and all his friends rapidly disappear.

Calm with Horses
VUE Sat 16 Nov 20:30 & Mon 18 Nov 18:30 & Tue 19 Nov 13:30 | £9/£7.50
Directed by Nick Rowland | UK | 2019 | 1hr 35min | English

Nick Rowland’s brooding debut is a gritty crime drama starring Cosmo Jarvis (Lady Macbeth) and Barry Keoghan (Killing of a Sacred Deer), and executive produced by Michael Fassbender. In darkest rural Ireland, ex-boxer Douglas ‘Arm’ Armstrong has become the feared enforcer for the drug-dealing Devers family. Yet underneath Arm’s thuggish exterior lies a disarming tenderness, especially when he’s allowed to visit his autistic 5-year-old son, Jack. When the Devers give Arm a task that will test the limits of his loyalty, he is forced to decide what kind of man he really wants to be.

The Cave (Thailand)
VICTORIA Sun 10 Nov 19:45 | £9/£7.50
Directed by Tom Waller | Thailand, Ireland | 2019 | 1hr 44min | Thai with subtitles & English

In the summer of 2018, the world was transfixed by the plight of a boys’ football team trapped in a flooded cave in Thailand for 18 days. Against all odds, the boys were rescued in a daring and difficult mission thanks to an international coalition of divers and experts. Thai born director Tom Waller, who trained at the Northern Film School, used several of the real-life divers in this nail-biting dramatisation of the astonishing rescue mission. Waller’s journalistic style and the claustrophobic diving scenes create an incredibly authentic tribute to the heroism of all those involved.

Days of the Bagnold Summer
VUE Fri 8 Nov 16:15 & Sun 10 Nov 18:30 & Wed 13 Nov 18:30 | £9/£7.50
Directed by Simon Bird | UK | 2019 | 1hr 26min | English

Librarian Sue (Monica Dolan) and her heavy metal-loving teenage son (Eric Cave, son of singer-songwriter Nick Cave) navigate differences, dreams and disappointments over the course of a long British summer. Unexpectedly finding themselves thrown together for six weeks, tensions rise in a carefully observed coming-of-age comedy. Featuring a stellar cast (Alice Lowe, Rob Brydon, Tamsin Greig) this poignant and mature directorial debut from Inbetweeners alumni Simon Bird tenderly portrays a mother-son relationship, finding humour, tragedy and occasional common ground.

Fire Will Come
VUE Thu 7 Nov 16:15 & Sat 9 Nov 16:00 | £9/£7.50
Directed by Oliver Laxe | Spain, France, Luxembourg | 2019 | 1hr 30min | Gallegan with subtitles

Winner of the Un Certain Regard jury prize at the Cannes Festival, and magnificently shot on 16mm, Oliver Laxe’s follow up to Mimosas, glorifies nature as both serene and violent. Set in the breathtaking, mountainous landscape of Galicia, middle-aged Amador is released from prison after serving a sentence for arson. He returns to live with his mother but his presence sparks hostility from the remote community. Contemplative pacing evokes a sense of poetry in their everyday lives, yet tensions simmer beneath the surface culminating in one of the year’s most unforgettable finales.
God Exists, Her Name is Petrunya (LUX Prize Finalist)
EVERYMAN Fri 8 Nov 16:00 & Mon 11 Nov 12:00 | £9/£7.50
Directed by Teona Strugar Mitevska | Republic of Macedonia, Belgium | 2019 | 1hr 40min | Macedonian with subtitles

Teona Strugar Mitevska’s film is a vivid, feminist satire featuring a terrific lead performance from Zorica Nusheva. Every January in Stip, a small town in Macedonia, the local priest throws a wooden cross into the river and hundreds of men dive after it. Good fortune and prosperity are guaranteed to the man who retrieves it. When Petrunya manages to grab the cross before the others, her competitors are furious – how dare a woman take part in their ritual? All hell breaks loose, but Petrunya holds her ground. She won her cross and will not give it up.

A Hidden Life
VICTORIA Mon 18 Nov 19:00 | £9/£7.50
Directed by Terrence Malick | Germany, USA | 2019 | 2hr 53min | German with subtitles & English

Based on real events, from visionary writer-director Terrence Malick (Days of Heaven, The Tree of Life), A Hidden Life is the story of an unsung hero, Franz Jägerstätter, who refused to fight for the Nazis in World War II. When the pious Austrian farmer is faced with the threat of execution for treason, it is his unwavering faith and his love for his wife Fanni and children that keeps his spirit alive. A Hidden Life is a searing exploration of the consequences of upholding one’s convictions in a time of terrifying upheaval.

Genesis
VUE Sat 16 Nov 13:15 & Sun 17 Nov 20:30 & Thu 21 Nov 15:30 | £9/£7.50
Directed by Philippe Lesage | Canada | 2018 | 1hr 50min | French with subtitles & English

Philippe Lesage gives the coming-of-age drama an exceptional makeover in Genesis, following the rollercoaster ride of first love affairs amongst a group of Canadian teens. In an all-male private school, 16-year-old Guillaume is secretly in love with his best friend. His step sister Charlotte, 18, is startled as her boyfriend suggests having an open relationship and both their lives change forever. Based on Charles Brandt’s non-fiction book I Heard You Paint Houses, Martin Scorsese’s eagerly-awaited The Irishman is a richly-textured American crime saga. Robert De Niro heads an incredible cast as Frank Sheeran, a World War II veteran who, now in his old age, recalls his past years working as a hitman. A delight, for anyone interested in what home can mean. Presented in partnership with Leeds Palestinian Film Festival.

Screening with Luna Llena, an intimate look at a ‘migrant caravan’ passing through the Mexican border.

The Hidden City
HYDE PARK Tue 12 Nov 18:30 | £9/£7.50
Directed by Víctor Moreno | Spain, France, Germany | 2018 | 1hr 20min | Spanish with subtitles

Victor Moreno’s pioneering documentary is a dizzying trip into the depths of the big city, a literally suburban world that is alien to most of us and yet right under our feet. There is a vast labyrinth of galleries, tunnels, sewers and transportation networks that have a symbiotic relationship with the city above, a functional and essential space but also symbolic: the unconscious of the city. Employing an innovative visual style and an exquisite, dialogue-free sound design, where any human beings are shadowy and indistinct, the film transforms documentary realism into an abstract sensorial journey.

René + Q&A Films by Helena Třeštíková
HYDE PARK Fri 15 Nov 19:00 | £9/£7.50
Directed by Helena Třeštíková | Czech Republic | 2008 | 1hr 23min | Czech with subtitles

Perhaps the most notorious of Helena Třeštíková’s unique, time-lapse documentaries made by developing meaningful relationships with her subjects over many years, René is the sad tale of a young man who is unable to break the inevitable chain of crime and incarceration that defines his life. Punctuated with grim but bitterly insightful confessions from his prison journals, the film creates a poignant and empathetic portrait of an eternal outsider whose self-destructive life cycle unfolds as Czech Society goes through a series of seismic changes in the background. Followed by a Q&A with the director by Peter Hames.

She is the Other Gaze

Each of the artists’ trajectories has been informed by women’s issues: the fight against patriarchal structures, the lack of visibility, an intimate relation to the objects of everyday domesticity, the difficulties in negotiating family life and artistic ambitions.

Battaglia found her calling relatively late in life, breaking tradition by turning away from a domestic role as a wife and mother, she captured the horrors of everyday life in Sicily in the eighties as resistance to the rule of the brutal Corleonesi family led to a series of grizzly murders, forcing a stricken community into silence.

The Street
HYDE PARK Mon 11 Nov 20:45 | £9/£7.50
Directed by Zed Nelson | UK | 2019 | 1hr 33min | English

Photographer-filmmaker Zed Nelson explores the effects of gentrification in Hoxton Street, East London, a place where the upheavals of rapid change, austerity and escalating prices are having devastating effects on the working class community there. Long running local businesses are closing down as trendy new bars, cafes and galleries open up, run by an affluent new population and the social housing crisis forces out poor and elderly people. The EU referendum looms in the background fuelling growing xenophobia and resentment. A heartfelt and compassionate film about living in Britain right now.

Sudan-born director Suhaib Gasmelbari creates a melancholic yet wonderfully charged evocation of both the demise of Sudan’s once-thriving film industry and the joys of the communal cinema experience.

As Ruka begins to discover in herself a supernatural connection to the sea, a host of aquatic life mysteriously gathers off the coast. Adapted from the manga of the same name by Daisuke Igarashi, Children of the Sea lifts the artwork, story and dialogue directly from its pages, creating an atmospherically exquisite oceanic animation, leading to an incredible psychedelic finale._

_Entitled 30-something hipster Norval Greenwood (Elijah Wood) arrives at a beautiful and remote coastal cabin to reconnect with his father, whom he hasn’t seen for thirty years. He quickly discovers that his dad is a disapproving jerk who has a shady past and things quickly spiral out of control, descending into violence and mayhem. Miles from home, alone and out of his comfort zone, Norval is forced to confront his demons, both real and imagined. Ant Timpson’s directorial debut is dark, twisted, bloody, violent and a hell of a lot of fun._

_Found at a Catholic hospital filthy and ferocious, feral teenager Darlin’ is whisked off to a care home run by The Bishop and his obedient nuns where she is to be tamed into a ‘good girl’. However, Darlin’ holds a secret - The Woman, equally fierce and feral, who raised her is ever present and determined to come for her no matter who tries to step in her way. Continuing the twistedly vicious adventure of Lucky McKee’s cult hit The Woman, actor Pollyanna McIntosh takes the reins in her directorial debut, delivering a feast on the senses and sensibility._

During a right-wing demonstration against the opening of a refugee centre in Rome, a zombie apocalypse breaks out. As food, water and medicine in the centre runs low, tempers and prejudices escalate and it becomes unclear whether the biggest threat is the humans inside or the zombies outside. In the same way that Romero’s zombie films were a socio-political statement at the time, Luna Gualano’s film reflects the current rise of populism and racial intolerance.

VICTORIA Fri 15 Nov 20:00 | £9/£7.50

You have never seen a film quite like The Lighthouse. Willem Dafoe and Robert Pattinson play Victorian lightkeepers stuck out a four-week stint on a jagged windswept island. Thomas is the grizzled, demonic older man who is supposed to be training the younger Ephraim. Yet there is little guidance in their increasingly drunken meals or in Thomas’ flinty banter – ‘Thirteen Christmases at sea. Little ones at home. She never forgave it’. As these sea dogs’ grog runs low and phantoms begin to beset the island, this deliciously gothic thriller becomes ever-more distinctive, compelling, and wild. A future cult classic.

Taking the form of a video game and with a relentlessly exuberant nihilism, Makoto Nagahisa’s chaotically eccentric debut is bursting with 8-Bit brilliance, but it’s not without a deeper emotional core. Be sure to stay watching right to the end, as the film takes a surprising about-turn.

Women Who Shaped Film

This year’s LIFF retrospective focuses on the work of women editors, bringing invisible work into the light and taking us on a kaleidoscopic journey through global film history. We celebrate both the unsung art of film editing – work that gives structure, rhythm, mood and energy to a film – and the vital work of women in the film industry that is often uncredited or underappreciated.

A role women were ‘relegated’ to in the early years of cinema became one they thrived in, and is now rightly acknowledged as one of the most important and creative. Dive into our expansive survey that places monumental masterpieces alongside hidden gems of independent filmmaking and discover editing innovations that shaped cinema.

The title of the retrospective is taken from the nickname given to Verna Fields who edited American Graffiti, Jaws and Medium Cool.
As a young woman Rashida Abdel Salam had acting aspirations but “I couldn’t be an actress because I can’t roll my R’s properly, so I found out about editing.” Throughout a career spanning over four decades, Abdel Salam has edited films by some of the most celebrated Egyptian directors, including Youssef Chahine. A deeply personal film that draws on Chahine’s own childhood, set in 1942, Alexandria... Why? tells the story of Yehia, a teenager obsessed with Hollywood cinema, and who dreams of studying filmmaking in America. A rich and kaleidoscopic portrait of war-torn Egypt and its inhabitants struggling to find love and happiness.

Marie Zemanová began her twenty-year collaboration with surrealist filmmaker Jan Švankmajer working on his feature-film debut, Alice. A dark reworking of Lewis Carroll’s Alice in Wonderland, Švankmajer’s interpretation is a wildly inventive and eerily captivating work of fantasy. When Alice follows the White Rabbit down the rabbit hole she enters a nightmarish world, and must navigate a bleak and desolate landscape filled with bizarre and threatening characters. Zemanová expertly cuts between live action footage and stop-motion animation to create an immersive visual experience.

Known as ‘Hollywood’s Editor in Chief’, Barbara ‘Bobbie’ McLean was one of the industry’s most respected editors. In All About Eve, Joseph L. Mankiewicz’s witty and sophisticated portrait of a Broadway diva (Bette Davis, in a career-defining role) and her obsessed fan (Anne Baxter), McLean deftly edits to the rhythm of the razor-sharp dialogue. During her career, McLean became a powerful figure within 20th Century Fox, and Darryl F. Zanuck, the studio chief, rarely made a major decision without consulting her first.
Army of Shadows Edited by Françoise Bonnot
VICTORIA Fri 8 Nov 14:30 | £9/£7.50
Directed by Jean-Pierre Melville | France, Italy | 1969 | 2hr 25min | French & German with subtitles & English

Following in the footsteps of her mother (Monique Bonnot, who was a legendary editor in her own right), Françoise Bonnot became one of the world’s most versatile and seasoned film editors with a career that spanned over five decades. In Army of Shadows, directed by Jean-Pierre Melville, Bonnot’s incisive editing gives tension to this atmospheric masterpiece. A bleak portrait of the struggles of French Resistance during World War II, the film shrewdly captures the trauma of occupation, as we follow a loose network of underground fighters and their invisible yet life-threatening work.

Beau Travail Edited by Nelly Quettier (35mm)
HYDE PARK Wed 13 Nov 17:15 & Fri 15 Nov 13:30 | £9/£7.50
Directed by Claire Denis | France | 1999 | 1hr 32min | French, Italian & Russian with subtitles

Considered to be Claire Denis’ masterpiece, Beau Travail is a mesmerising exploration of male identity in crisis, brought to life through the female lens of Denis, cinematographer Agnès Godard, and editor Nelly Quettier. Strict disciplinarian Sergeant Galoup rigorously trains his men in an outpost in the African desert, until the arrival of a new recruit awakens a burning jealousy. In a film of few words, the bold imagery, sound and rhythm convey the ways in which belonging, desire and violence trouble contemporary masculinity. With a post-film talk that explores these issues from a psychoanalytic perspective.

Bonnie and Clyde Edited by Dede Allen
VICTORIA Thu 14 Nov 15:00 | £9/£7.50
Directed by Arthur Penn | USA | 1967 | 1hr 51min | English

In a celebrated career spanning more than 50 years, Dede Allen brought radical, modern editing techniques like jump cuts and audio overlays to the Hollywood screen and defined the language of New American Cinema. Allen’s work was highly influential and shifted the emphasis towards a view of film editing not purely as a technical discipline, but as an art. Released in 1967, Bonnie and Clyde’s iconic portrayal of partners in crime defied conventions in its depiction of violence and its moral ambiguity, and ushered in an exciting era of innovative filmmaking.

Breathless Edited by Cécile Decugis
HYDE PARK Sat 9 Nov 10:00 & Wed 13 Nov 15:15 | £9/£7.50
Directed by Jean-Luc Godard | France | 1960 | 1hr 30min | French with subtitles

A prominent editor of the Nouvelle Vague, Cécile Decugis contributed greatly to its development and shaped a new cinematic language. In Breathless, Decugis helped to bring about a revolution in film editing. When the film was deemed too long, Decugis was instructed to cut sections out of scenes, and the jump cut was born. Breaking established rules of continuity, the innovative use of jump cuts give the film a youthful energy and rhythm. Jean Seberg and Paul Belmondo play lovers on the run in this ground-breaking piece of cinema.

Dancer in the Dark Edited by Molly Malene Stensgaard (35mm)
HYDE PARK Mon 18 Nov 13:00 & Tue 19 Nov 20:15 | £9/£7.50
Directed by Lars von Trier | Denmark, Germany | 2000 | 2hr 20min | English & some subtitles

Molly Malene Stensgaard has edited seven of Lars Von Trier’s films, including the Cannes Palme d’Or winning Dancer in the Dark. Set in rural America in 1964, Björk plays an immigrant and single mother who takes refuge from her hardships by imagining herself and her factory co-workers in Hollywood musicals. Stensgaard’s impressive editing is most noticeable in the musical sequences which were filmed simultaneously using over 100 digital cameras so that multiple angles of the performance could be captured and cut together.

The Fall of the Romanov Dynasty Edited by Esfir Shub (16mm)
HYDE PARK Mon 11 Nov 18:30 | £9/£7.50 (with piano accompaniment by Jonny Best)
Directed by Esfir Shub | Soviet Union | 1927 | 1hr 30min | Silent, captions with subtitles

In 1926, the Soviet state film department commissioned Esfir Shub to make a film to mark the 10th anniversary of the 1917 revolution. Already a highly experienced editor, Shub built her work out of fragments of existing footage, hunting down more than 60,000 meters of film and using 1500 metres in the final cut. Some of her finds were extraordinary, including the Tsar’s own home movies, shot by his personal cinematographer. Shub’s flair for storytelling and eye for the dynamic content of a shot, are gloriously in evidence. This rare, 16mm screening will be accompanied by pianist Jonny Best.

In 1927, Bonnie and Clyde's iconic portrayal of partners in crime defied conventions in its depiction of violence and its moral ambiguity, and ushered in an exciting era of innovative filmmaking.

Directed by Ingmar Bergman | Sweden | 1982 | 3hr 8min | Multiple languages with subtitles & English
Sylvia Ingemarsson worked with Ingmar Bergman on 14 projects during the late stage of his career, and Fanny and Alexander is perhaps their best known collaboration. Bergman’s most autobiographical film, a sprawling family saga, Fanny and Alexander centres around the two children of the theatrical Ekdahl family in turn-of-the-century Sweden. After the sudden death of their father, their cousin Alexander is sent to a strict boarding school where he is cruelly bullied. A highly personal family drama, Fanny and Alexander is a remarkable achievement by a great filmmaker.

Green for Danger Edited by Thelma Connell
HYDE PARK Tue 12 Nov 16:30 & Thu 14 Nov 11:00 | £9/£7.50
Directed by Sidney Gilliat | UK | 1946 | 1hr 31min | English
Thelma Connell began her career in film as a ‘continuity girl’ before moving up the ranks to editor. In Green for Danger, an engrossing whodunit set in a World War II emergency hospital, Connell uses economical editing to build tension (particularly in the memorable operating theatre sequences). The eccentric Inspector Cockrill is tasked with investigating a string of mysterious deaths in the rural hospital, played with comedic flair by Alastair Sim. This underrated gem of British cinema mixes sly humour with suspense to delightful effect. With an introduction by Dr Melanie Bell (University of Leeds).

Häxan Edited by Edla Hansen
VICTORIA Mon 18 Nov 13:00 | FREE (with organ accompaniment by Darius Battiwalla)
Directed by Benjamin Christensen | Sweden, Denmark | 1922 | 1hr 31min | Silent, captions with subtitles
Edla Hansen began working in the Danish film industry from its earliest days, starting out as a film cutter at Nordisk Film in 1915. Though she went on to have an editing career that spanned five decades, it is Häxan that is her best remembered work. Released in 1922, this legendary silent film, written and directed by Benjamin Christensen, mixes documentary with dramatic vignettes to explore the history of witchcraft and hysteria. Hansen’s editing skillfully brings together elements of Gothic horror, dark humour and essay-film to create a truly unique piece of cinema.

VICTORIA Mon 11 Nov 14:45 & Wed 13 Nov 14:30 | £9/£7.50
Directed by Jacques Becker | France, Italy | 1960 | 2hr 11min | French with subtitles
A rarely screened classic that deserves to be experienced more by today’s film audiences, Le Trou is an absolutely riveting French prison thriller made extraordinary in part thanks to the finely-tuned tension and precision pace shaped by editors Marguerite Renoir and Geneviève Vaury. Jacques Becker’s last film, hailed as a masterpiece by Francois Truffaut, Le Trou (meaning ‘the hole’) is the story of five inmates at the notorious Santé Prison in Paris collaborating and clashing in a tortuous attempt at escape by digging their way out of their shared cell.

Nominated for five Oscars for Best Film Editing and winning for Lawrence of Arabia, British editor Anne V. Coates is a legendary figure in cinema history who devised techniques for shaping David Lean’s epic adventure - like the famous ‘match cut’ - that were revolutionary. Peter O’Toole stars as T.E. Lawrence, the audacious World War I British army officer who heroically united rival Arab desert tribes and led them to war against the mighty Turkish Empire. Experience the greatest work of Anne V. Coates in the magnificent setting of Leeds Town Hall.

The Juniper Tree Edited by Nietzchka Keene
HYDE PARK Tue 19 Nov 16:15 & Thu 21 Nov 18:30 | £9/£7.50
Directed by Nietzchka Keene | Iceland | 1990 | 1hr 18min | English
Directed, written and edited by Nietzchka Keene, The Juniper Tree is a lost gem of independent cinema, and the film that gave Björk her first acting role. Adapted from the Brothers Grimm story of the same name, Keene refreshes it into a feminist fairy tale of striking power. Set in medieval Iceland, sisters Margit and Katla are left to fend for themselves after their mother is burned to death as a suspected witch. This dark tale of witchcraft and mysticism is an unforgettable work of haunting beauty.

Man of Marble Edited by Halina Prugar-Ketling
HYDE PARK Tue 12 Nov 13:15 | £9/£7.50
Directed by Andrzej Wajda | Poland | 1977 | 2hr 33min | Polish with subtitles

Halina Prugar-Ketling had an enduring partnership with Andrzej Wajda, working with him for over twenty years. Despite this long relationship, Wajda rarely credited her, as Prugar-Ketling asserted “he never recognized me and my work publicly. Even worse, he kept saying that he does the editing himself in the evenings.” A landmark of Polish cinema, Man of Marble follows Agnieszka, a young film student in 1970s Krakow making a diploma film about a 1950s bricklayer and proletarian hero, Birkut. Regarded as Wajda’s most important work, it is Prugar-Ketling’s editing work that gives vital energy and urgency to this political epic.

Man with a Movie Camera Edited by Yelizaveta Svilova
VICTORIA Mon 11 Nov 13:00 | FREE (with organ accompaniment by Jonathan P Eyre)
Directed by Dziga Vertov | Soviet Union | 1929 | 1hr 8min | Silent, captions with subtitles

Relentlessly impactful in its sheer force of groundbreaking ideas, the Soviet-era Man with a Movie Camera is a landmark of documentary and one of the greatest films ever made. A collection of images as collected by a roving cameraman, it was edited by Yelizaveta Svilova, who in the mode of ascribing single authorship, would often go uncredited. Yet Svilova helped pioneer montage, the syntax of film language, and was a fulsome co-creator together with husband Dziga Vertov. Svilova’s incredible work can be seen literally here, for there is on screen, hard at work at her editing table.

Medium Cool Edited by Verna Fields
VICTORIA Thu 14 Nov 12:30 | £9/£7.50
Directed by Haskell Wexler | USA | 1969 | 1hr 50min | English

Affectionately nicknamed ‘Mother Cutter’ by the young filmmakers she mentored, celebrated editor Verna Fields is best known for her innovative work on Jaws. Here we revisit one of her earlier edited works, the incendiary counterculture masterpiece Medium Cool. Field’s editing shapes a visceral cinematic snapshot of 60s America and a piercing critique of the media. Directed and shot by Haskell Wexler, the film deftly merges narrative cinema with documentary footage, climaxing in an unforgettable scene where fictional characters become caught up in the real life tumult of the 1968 Democratic National Convention.

Mirror Edited by Lyudmila Feiginova
VICTORIA Mon 11 Nov 17:30 & Wed 13 Nov 12:00 | £9/£7.50
Directed by Andrei Tarkovsky | Soviet Union | 1975 | 1hr 47min | Russian & Spanish with subtitles

A cascade of uncanny images and incidents that reflect memories of Soviet Russia in three distinct periods, Mirror may seem to be a baffling enigma at first glance, yet it is a rigorous execution of film-as-poetry. Editor Lyudmila Feiginova assembled Mirror with director Tarkovsky according to his idea that cinema was ‘sculpting in time’. In its juxtapositions, it is Feiginova’s work that gives Mirror its trippy, nonlinear logic. Among several contributions to the structure, she intuitively suggested the very first scene in the film, thus unlocking this cinematic dream-state of lucid, emotional beauty.
Osaka Elegy
Edited by Tazuko Sakane

HYDE PARK Fri 15 Nov 17:15 | £9/£7.50
Directed by Kenji Mizoguchi | Japan | 1936 | 1hr 11min | Japanese with subtitles

Set in the modern metropolis of 1930s Osaka, this dark urban tale provides an unflinching critique of a patriarchal society, still gripped by traditional values. The film features a powerful performance from Isuzu Yamada as Ayako, a telephone operator who becomes the mistress of her boss in order to pay her father’s drinking debts. Editor Tazuko Sakane collaborated with Kenji Mizoguchi on many films, and would go on to become Japan’s first and only female director in the pre-war period. Here, Tazuko’s precise editing combines with fluid cinematography to create a bold and striking masterpiece.

Ordet
Edited by Edith Schlüssel

VICTORIA Thu 7 Nov 15:30 | £9/£7.50
Directed by Carl Theodor Dreyer | Denmark | 1955 | 2hr 6min | Danish with subtitles

Famously one of the most transcendent and spiritual films, Ordet’s unearthly power is corralled via the mysterious precision of its editing rhythms. The story concerns a pious father, his three sons and the youngest marriage request to the head of a rival Lutheran sect. An uncanny higher power infuses Ordet, a power focused through the film’s editing to jolt the rational mind. As is the case with many of the canonical great directors, editor Edith Schlüssel worked with director Carl Theodor Dreyer consistently. In Ordet she created a miracle from earthly material.

Raging Bull
Edited by Thelma Schoonmaker

VICTORIA Wed 13 Nov 17:15 & Fri 15 Nov 12:30 | £9/£7.50
Directed by Martin Scorsese | USA | 1980 | 2hr 9min | English

Right from the get-go, Raging Bull gets us into the head of troubled boxer Jake LaMotta as he slow-motion shadow-boxes to a Mascagni opera. Contrast this moment of grace with the brutality of Jake’s bouts, in close-combat action that capture the visceral intensity of the fight in a way that has never been equalled. Editor Thelma Schoonmaker has had a symbiotic relationship with Martin Scorsese for over fifty years. It’s one of the greatest authorial collaborations in cinema, with Schoonmaker helping creating emotional depth alongside bravura force. Raging Bull is an editing masterclass, and the first of Schoonmaker’s three Oscar-wins.

Rome, Open City
Edited by Jolanda Benvenuti

VICTORIA Thu 7 Nov 13:00 & Fri 8 Nov 12:00 | £9/£7.50
Directed by Roberto Rossellini | Italy | 1945 | 1hr 43min | Italian, German & Latin with subtitles

Jolanda Benvenuti began working with director Roberto Rossellini in 1945 on Rome, Open City and continued to work with him for the next three decades, helping to shape a new film movement and becoming one of the most respected editors of her time. In the credits for Rome, Open City Benvenuti’s name was substituted for that of a more well-known male editor, as it was commonplace to not credit female professionals. A classic of Italian neorealist cinema, this searing melodrama set in Nazi-occupied Rome is an indelible portrait of dignity and determination under oppression.

Shoah
Edited by Ziva Postec

HYDE PARK Wed 20 Nov 13:00 & Thu 21 Nov 13:00 | First Era £9/£7.50 & Second Era £9/£7.50
Directed by Claude Lanzmann | France | 1985 | 9hr 26min | Multiple languages with subtitles & English

The monumental documentary Shoah, which recounts the story of the Holocaust through interviews with witnesses - perpetrators as well as survivors - was a landmark achievement by all participants including principal editor Ziva Postec. Working with director Claude Lanzmann from 1979 to 1985, Ziva Postec selected from 350 hours of footage that she ‘edited like lacework’ and punctuated with shots of the ‘guilty landscape’, before ultimately collapsing from exhaustion for three months. Shoah is screening at LIFF 2019 over two days with First Era followed by Second Era, each with intervals.

The Tempest
Edited by Lesley Walker (35mm)

HYDE PARK Mon 11 Nov 16:00 & Wed 13 Nov 11:00 | £9/£7.50
Directed by Derek Jarman | UK | 1979 | 1hr 35min | English

Lesley Walker developed a fast moving style that helped define the 80s zeitgeist in British film and television, editing features like Mona Lisa and Letter to Brezhnev. The Tempest is one of her earliest credits and she pioneered a suitably free and unconventional approach, deliberately mistiming and not necessarily matching shots up, contributing enormously to the disorienting effect of the film. Derek Jarman’s Shakespeare adaptation is far more radical and cinematic than the average heritage cinema style take on the bard but also more considerate of its Renaissance origins. An underrated British classic.
The Wizard of Oz Edited by Blanche Sewell
HYDE PARK Sat 9 Nov 12:00 | VICTORIA Sat 16 Nov 09:30 | £9/£7.50 £3 under 16s (U)
Directed by Victor Fleming & King Vidor | USA | 1939 | 1hr 42min | English
The story goes that Blanche Sewell came to Hollywood with dreams of being an actress, and when that didn’t work out, she found work as a ‘negative cutter’. Sewell soon became known as a talented editor of action, who could also bring emotional impact. Sewell edited many MGM classics, but is best remembered for her work on The Wizard of Oz, where her skillful editing ensured the film’s technical innovations worked to thrilling and magical effect. Now 80 years on, this timeless musical fantasy still casts an intoxicating spell.

Veronika Voss Edited by Juliane Lorenz
HYDE PARK Mon 11 Nov 13:30 & Tue 12 Nov 11:00 | £9/£7.50
Directed by Rainer Werner Fassbinder | West Germany | 1982 | 1hr 44min | German with subtitles & English
Juliane Lorenz began working with Rainer Werner Fassbinder during the highly productive last stage of his career, working on ten films and one television series in just a six year period. Their partnership was a close one, with Fassbinder saying to Lorenz ‘you are a second director’. In Veronika Voss, Rosel Zech gives a sublime performance as an aging film star, struggling to adjust to post-war life and haunted by memories of past grandeur. With shades of Sunset Boulevard, Fassbinder’s penultimate film blends 1950s melodrama with dark satire. Lorenz’s editing work is integral to the mood and rhythm of this stylish monochrome masterwork.

The Watermelon Woman Edited by Cheryl Dunye
BELGRAVE Wed 13 Nov 16:00 | £7/£6
Directed by Cheryl Dunye | USA | 1996 | 1hr 30min | English
This dynamic late 90’s debut is a low-budget feature that shakes up traditional format; a warm, open-hearted, genre-bending quasi-documentary. It follows a video store clerk in Philadelphia as she makes a film about a black actress from the 1930s. Both directed and edited by Cheryl Dunye, when it came out over 20 years ago it was the first feature by – and about – a black lesbian. Dunye’s storytelling through her edit means that her own life, sexual exploits, and struggles, are mediated by her own gaze. Its comic tone, rollicking narrative and 90’s video aesthetic give it its cult classic status.

Testament of Orpheus Edited by Marie-Josèphe Yoyotte
HYDE PARK Wed 13 Nov 13:00 & Thu 14 Nov 13:00 | £9/£7.50
Directed by Jean Cocteau | France | 1960 | 1hr 23min | French with subtitles
Beginning her career in 1957, Marie-Josèphe Yoyotte was the first black film editor to work in French cinema, and became a hugely respected editor of arthouse cinema. In Testament of Orpheus, Jean Cocteau’s swan song and the third part of his Orphic trilogy, Cocteau casts himself as an 18th-century poet travelling through time on a quest for divine wisdom. A lyrical meditation on life, death, art and poetry with a cast of Cocteau’s friends and lovers including Jean Marais, Pablo Picasso, Yul Brynner, Charles Aznavour, Jean-Pierre Leaud, and Yoyotte herself in a brief cameo.

Wend Kuuni Edited by Andrée Davanture

Directed by Gaston Kaboré | Burkina Faso | 1982 | 1hr 15min | Mossi with subtitles
Andrée Davanture worked extensively in French cinema before becoming a prominent editor of African cinema, and beyond editing, a passionate promoter of African filmmaking. Directed by Gaston Kaboré, Wend Kuuni is set in a pre-colonial Burkina Faso and tells the story of a mute boy who is found abandoned in the bush. As the gentle narrative unfolds, the boy’s past trauma comes to the surface. This landmark of African cinema is a work of immense beauty and poetry and Kaboré draws on traditional storytelling and folktales to create a new cinematic language.

Is the city the source of ceaseless capital punishments? Or the resource for vital and dynamic inspiration? The protagonists in this programme, ranging from female sexual predators to casually racist law enforcers, all have a different take on their role within the urban landscape. And none more so than 65-year-old Claude who zooms about on her little motorbike, buying scratch cards and living off bogus cheques, driving the local population to the depth of despair.

International Short Competition 3 Youthful Indiscretions

6 shorts | 5 countries | 2018 & 2019 | 1hr 44min | Multiple languages with subtitles & English

Diego Maradona and Nicolae Ceausescu may seem unlikely bedfellows but within the world of super sonic youths witnessed in this programme, they are symbols of both positive and negative revolutions in the home and on the streets. Adele, a walking fish, and a haphazardly hidden bag of cocaine add further chaos to the sense of rebellion and transformation which courses through each of these films; the only sense comes from an over-protective father and in the end, even he turns out to be wrong.

International Short Competition 6 Playing the Part
EVERYMAN Sat 16 Nov 10:45 | £9/£7.50
5 shorts | 5 countries | 2018 & 2019 | 1hr 39min | Multiple languages with subtitles & English

Who are you? Why are you? There's nothing quite like an existential crisis to get you through the day. Each of the films in this sequence depict some form of warped phenomenological experience: a Finnish cleaning woman shamelessly re-inventing herself as a wildly successful novelist or the dark tale of a young Cornish poet compelled to buy an old writing case. You may not know yourself after these films but one thing you will be certain of is that Manila is full of men named Boy. This programme contains the Northern Premiere of 'Hard Cracked The Wind' by Mark Jenkin (Bait).

International Short Competition 4 Transmission Interrupted
EVERYMAN Fri 15 Nov 11:30 | £9/£7.50
6 shorts | 5 countries | 2018 & 2019 | 1hr 48min | Multiple languages with subtitles & English

We traverse the globe in this programme to bring you to a desolate Chinese fishing village where a mother and daughter have a poignant interaction; to an Austrian family home where a young girl invokes magic to revive her dead hamster; to a runaway from a Belarusian orphanage; to the feral streets of Athens where we witness a woman quite literally on the run and back to China again where an attempted abortion results in the birthing of a live jellyfish. What's the connection between them all? We're not entirely sure other than: transmission interrupted.

World Animation Competition 1
EVERYMAN Thu 14 Nov 16:30 & Mon 18 Nov 15:15 | £9/£7.50
10 shorts | 8 countries | 2018 & 2019 | 1hr 25min | Multiple languages with subtitles & English

Every year our World Animation Competition presents a comprehensive survey of brand new short animations from around the world, bringing together everything from festival award winners to debut student films. It's a wonderful collection of the brightest and best. Funny, dark, bleak, sad, cosmic, ecstatic, the filmmakers offer an incredible showcase of craft and inventiveness, stuffed liberally into 30 films from 13 countries. Programme 1 features a troupe of beautifully choreographed airborne snails, in 1 Mètre/Heure, chimerical taxidermy in Imbued Life and Astrid Goldsmith's glorious dancing badgers in Quarantine.
World Animation Competition 2
EVERYMAN Fri 15 Nov 16:30 & Tue 19 Nov 12:45 | £9/£7.50
10 shorts | 9 countries | 2018 & 2019 | 1hr 24min | Multiple languages with subtitles & English

Painstakingly selected from hundreds of entries, our international panorama of shorts is a perennial audience favourite. Cesar Diaz Meléndez is a well-known animator who has worked on Frankenweenie and Isle of Dogs, so we are delighted to welcome him back to the short film competition with eye-popping desert-bound stop motion film Muedra. Programme 2 also includes Orbit, Tess Martin’s delightful zoetrope-inspired short, plus there’s the wacky Swiss treat (and earworm inducing) Why Slugs Have No Legs, one of several brilliant films from that country this year.

World Animation Competition 3
EVERYMAN Fri 15 Nov 20:45 & Wed 20 Nov 14:00 | £9/£7.50
10 shorts | 10 countries | 2018 & 2019 | 1hr 27min | Multiple languages with subtitles & English

Bursting with fantastic ideas and imaginative stories, the animation competition is a banquet of outstanding films of all flavours. Our selection of shorts go where only animation can – firmly pushing back the boundaries of beauty, creativity and taste! In our final programme, Estonian animator Anu-Laura Tuttleberg returns with a beguiling new film, Winter in the Rainforest, an eerily beautiful meditation on life on the riverbank, a superhero is tragically over-worked in Rain, and completing our line-up, we’ve the impressively rude Toomas Beneath the Valley of the Wild Wolves.

4PM SESSION 1
THE RISE AND FALL OF THE ‘TOMBOY’
A Hollywood icon of feminist defiance, an object of queer desire or a lazy stereotype, the tomboy has long been an alluring, confusing figure in cinema. This session will explore the layered history of the tomboy, and gender expression in film - from Calamity Jane to Clueless. The feature presentation is the dynamic late 90’s debut of Cheryl Dunye, The Watermelon Woman: a rom-com/documentary hybrid that follows a video store clerk in Philadelphia. Followed by a panel discussion with guest speakers including author and activist So Mayer, of queer feminist film curation collective Club des Femmes.

7PM SESSION 2
THE GIRL WITH TWO HEADS
Authentic characters on screen give voice to our unapologetic selves. Bold and idiosyncratic, the films in this programme include an Oscar-nominated short about a trans mechanic leading her two lives, a wrestler exploring body image, and an internet bride navigating French suburbia on her own thirsty terms. Post-screening there will be a filmmaker and industry roundtable discussion, followed by free drinks and a networking social - a space for conversation and collaboration.

Curated by Rona Bradley and presented as part of the 33rd Leeds International Film Festival.
